Artificial Human Eyes, Adjusted without pain, by Dr. Spencer, Dentist, 254 Penn street.

Novelties in Medicine.

The great reason why the medical has not increased paripassu with the other difficult and learned sciences is, that every new remedy, new mode of cure, or new plan of treatment, always meets with such a hue and cry of opposition by the regular profession, as few men are able or willing to withstand. This should not be so. In true science, everything ought to be made available that is useful; and the investigation of disease and its amelioration is surely one of the noblest pursuits of mankind; and which, if prosecuted with honest aims, should evoke the gratulations of all who have at heart the comfort and well being of the human race.

We have been led to these remarks by the perusal of a work on Urino-Pathology, by Dr L. Oldshue, who, for twenty years, has been investigating the subject of Urinary Deposits and Secretions—not out of curiosity merely, but with the more laudable view of making the application of this knowledge useful in ameliorating the sufferings of mankind.

The doctor has been successful. And why should he not? He has thoroughly systemized the course of study of Urino-Pathology and made the science acceptable in medical schools, and the practice of it respectable at home in Pittsburgh and the surrounding country as far as he is known.

It is a subject worthy the attention of all those who regard scientific investigation of disease as paramount to that mawkish sensibility which precludes it on account of its novelty.

For the benefit of those who feel disposed to avail themselves of the advantages of such investigations, we would further state that we have visited him at his office on Grant street, also, and found him prepared with all the apparatus necessary to a chemical as well as microscopical examination of the most complicated cases. His office was one continued throng of patients, from nearly all parts of the country, who spoke in unqualified terms in praise of his success.

General Longstreet, through the New Orleans Times, says there is no humiliation attached to an acceptance of the terms proposed by Congress, and he has no reason to doubt that such an acceptance in good faith will secure the re-admission of the Southern States.

If Congress adjourns to-day or to-morrow, it is stated the President will issue on the day of adjournment a proclamation calling an extra session of the Senate for Executive business.

The release of Jeff. Davis upon his own recognizance has been urged by prominent Republicans, for the reason that there is no prospect of Chief Justice Chase holding a Court in Virginia so long as that State is under the control of military authority, he deeming it beneath the dignity of a Judge of the Supreme Court to preside in a district under such control.

Horace Greeley and other influential New Yorkers have had an interview with the President relative to the removal of Collector Smythe.

It is now asserted that Mr. Foster will not be nominated as Minister to Austria He has returned to Connecticut.

Important dispatches in reference to movements of troops and gunboats on the Canadian frontier are withheld.

PROTEST FROM KOSSUTH.

TURIN, March 25.—Kossuth, who is now residing in this city, has written a letter protesting against the arrangement between Hungary and the Emperor of Austria.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The steamers New York and City of Washington, from Europe, arrived to-day.

The Fenian agitation continued, but no further collisions are reported. It is represented that the military force in Ireland now see plainly that in no part in the West of Ireland could any body of armed men hold together for twenty-four hours without the calamity of receiving extreme punishment. The flying columns were producing a decidedly good moral effect.

Rumors of ministerial dissentions were again rife.

PORTLAND, ME., March 25.—The steamship Nestoria, from Liverpool on the 14th, and Londonderry on the 15th instant, has arrived.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: We have reason to believe that some recent overtures of Sir Frederick Bruce in behalf of his Government in the matter of the arbitration of the Alabama claims have not been received in a conciliatory spirit by Mr. Seward. We do not understand the offer of the British representative to have been directly refused, but that at two interviews the subject had been evaded.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1867.

SENATE.

RESOLUTION ON ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WILSON moved the Secretary be ordered to request the House to return the resolution for adjournment, with a view to reconsideration of the vote by which it passed the Senate. Mr. Wilson explained that he wished if possible to fix a day between now and December on which Congress might be called together if necessary. The motion was agreed to.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

Mr. CHANDLER, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a resolution authorizing the head of the engineer corps to employ five civil engineers in the work of surveying and improving Northwestern rivers and harbors. Passed.

UNION LEAGUE MEMORIAL.

Mr. NYE presented a memorial from the Grand Council of the Union League of Maryland, asking that the provisions of the Reconstruction bill be extended to Maryland. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

PATENT OFFICE MATTERS.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Finance Committee, reported a bill authorizing the employment of additional Examiners in the Patent Office, not exceeding four in each class, or twelve in all.

A section in the House bill, creating the office of Solicitor of Patents, and a third section increasing the force of Examiners of Patents, were recommended by the Committee to be stricken out.

After debate, the second and third sections were stricken out, and the bill passed.

On motion of Mr. SHERMAN it was postponed till December.

SALE OF WAR VESSELS TO BILLIGERENTS.

Mr. CHANDLER moved the Senate take up the bill to allow American citizens to sell vessels of war to friendly belligerents.

Mr. SUMNER hoped it would not be taken up.

Mr. CHANDLER spoke at length in favor of the bill, saying he was willing to let the Alabama claims go for the present. He would be content to take a hand on the Northern frontier for them. Great Britain, he said, had ceased to command the respect of the civilized world. The bill he now presented was purely commercial in its character, and there ought to be no objection.

PROCEEDS OF CAPTURED PROPERTY.

Mr. SHERMAN reported from the Committee on Finance the House joint resolution, providing that,

WHEREAS, There are now in the hands of the Treasurer of the United States, as special agent of the Treasury Department, several millions of dollars, proceeds of property captured during the rebellion, which is under the control of the Secretary of the Treasury, and as it now stands may be disposed of in settling claims preferred by the alleged former owners of said captured property, without the sanction of Congress; and whereas, it is considered proper that such claims should not be settled and paid without first recieving the approval of Congress, therefore be it,

Resolved, &c., That all monies thus held by the Treasurer of the United States shall at once be conveyed by warrant into the United States Treasury, only to be drawn by authority of law.

Mr. MORTON said this bill proposed to legislate into law the very principle which formed the basis of the Alabama claims. To pass it now would be to stultify the American people before the world. It would put it into the power of the pettiest nation in world to make war upon the commerce of the greatest.

TRADERS ON THE PLAINS.

Pending the consideration of this subject, Mr. WILSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to report a joint resolution to authorize the Commanding General of the Army to permit traders to remain at certain posts for the accommodation of persons crossing the plains. The resolution passed.

SEEDS FOR REBEL STATES.

Mr. CAMERON introduced a resolution directing the distribution of $50,000 worth of seeds among the people of the rebel States. The present consideration was objected to by Mr. FESSENDEN, and it goes over.

Immediate consideration was asked, but objection was made.

The House resolution for adjournment was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate then went into Executive session and soon adjourned.

RESOLUTION OF ADJOURNMENT.

By Mr. SCHENCK: A concurrent resolution that each House of Congress shall adjourn the present session at noon on the 28th of March, to assemble on the first Wednesday of May, the first Wednesday of June, the first Wednesday of September, and the first Wednesday of November next, unless the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall, by joint proclamation, ten days before either of these dates, declare there is no occasion for the meeting of Congress at such time. Adopted—yeas, 88; nays, 31.

COLLECTOR SMYTHE.

The SPEAKER presented a letter from H. A. Smythe, Collector at New York, requesting to be allowed to appear by counsel before the Committee on Public Expenditures and produce witnesses in his own defense.

Mr. RANDALL offered a resolution to grant the request.

Finally the rules were suspended and the resolution offered was adopted—yeas, 80; nays, 35.

SUPPLEMENTARY RECONSTRUCTION.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, offered a resolution directing the Clerk of the House to present to the Secretary of State the Supplementary Reconstruction Bill, passed last Saturday over the President's veto. Adopted.

DOCKAGE BOATS FOR THE MISSISSIPPI.

Mr. PILE introduced a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to have built two dockage boats for use at the mouth of the Mississippi. Passed.

NAVY DEPARTMENT FUNDS.

Mr. LOGAN introduced a concurrent resolution directing that all the amount of money not estimated or asked by the Navy Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1868, and now under the control of the Navy Department, be conveyed into the Treasury of the United States.

Mr. LOGAN stated that the Secretary of the Navy asked, in his last report, Congress to do this very thing, stating that he had under his control an unexpended balance of ninety-eight millions, accumulated from the sale of different articles, and eighteen millions appropriated in the last Naval Appropriation Bill, making an aggregate of $117,994,000, being about one hundred millions more than required by the bill. This resolution was simply to have the money conveyed into the Treasury Department.

After considerable discussion the joint resolution was passed.

MARYLAND AFFAIRS.

Mr. THOMAS presented a memorial from the members of the General Assembly of Maryland, asking the immediate consideration by Congress of the condition of public affairs in that State; also, resolutions from the Union League of Maryland. Ordered to be printed.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, &C.

On motion of Mr. STEVENS, the Senate appropriation bill to supply the deficiency fund of the Senate, was taken from the Speaker's table.

Mr. STEVENS moved an amendment, adding an appropriation for salaries to the Commissioner of Education and his clerks, $9,400; and for the furniture and stationary of his office, $6000. Agreed to.

Mr. STEVENS also moved a substitute for the second section, making it the duty of the Secretary of the State, on receiving notice of the designation by the Clerk of the House of newspapers selected for the publication of the laws and treaties of the United States, to furnish promptly authentic copies thereof, provided it shall be lawful to publish them in three newspapers in Louisiana. Agreed to.

The bill was then passed.

SENATE BUSINESS CONSIDERED.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the business on the Speaker's table, and disposed thereof as follows:

The Senate bill declaring the bridges over the Missouri river at St. Charles, Mo., over the Mississippi river, near Louisiana, Mo., and over the Missouri river near Leavenworth, Kansas, legal constructions and post roads.

Mr. LOGAN offered an amendment, providing that for the bridge at Leavenworth authority shall first be obtained from the States of Missouri and Kansas.

Mr. HOLMAN moved to refer the bill and amendment to the Committee on Commerce. Agreed to—53 to 35.

DIPLOMATIC UNIFORMS.

The Senate joint resolution prohibiting persons in the diplomatic service of the United States from wearing uniforms not previously authorized by Congress.

Mr. SCHENCK opposed and Mr. JUDD favored the resolution.

A LICK AT MY TRADE.

Mr. COVODE moved as an amendment to add the following: "Provided that the diplomatic agents shall not be permitted to wear any court dress, except such as shall be prescribed and the patterns drawn by the chief tailor of the nation, who is now presiding over its destinies." [Laughter.]

The SPEAKER ruled promptly that the amendment was not in order.

ANOTHER DISORDERLY AMENDMENT.

Mr. NOELL suggested as an amendment, that the uniform shall consist of cocked hat, looped up, with the American eagle, swallow coat, with stars and stripes on the tails, butternut pantaloons, close fitting yellow stockings [with garters a la Franklin, buckskin vest, one side black and one side white, &c. [Laughter.]

The amendment was ruled out of order.

Mr. PRUYN suggested as a substitute that the Secretary of State be authorized to prescribe such uniform as he may deem proper.

Mr. BANKS refused to let the amendment be offered.

The House seconded the previous question and passed the joint resolution.

EDUCATION IN THE SOUTH.

Mr. DONNELLY offered the following:

Resolved, That this House express its earnest desire that the people of the States lately in rebellion will, in the reorganization of the same in accordance with existing laws for that purpose, insert in their respective State Constitutions a provision requiring the Legislature to establish a system of free schools, which shall afford adequate opportunity for public education to all children of the States. Adopted.

TO REORGANIZE THE JUDICIARY.

Mr. LAWRENCE, of Ohio, introduced a bill to re-organize the Judiciary. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The bill abolishes the Circuit Court of the United States and creates Courts of Appeals. The District Courts are to take the jurisdiction now exercised by the Circuit and the Courts of Appeals are to be held by one Judge of the Supreme Court and by the District Judges, with appellate jurisdiction from the District Courts, and original jurisdiction in Admiralty Courts.

Caucus of Republican Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, March 25, 1867.

WHO ARE DISFRANCHISED.

Senator Wilson, in a letter to John M. Wascom, of Texas, relative to the Reconstruction law, says: "In reply to your question, 'Does the law, as it now exists, disfranchise the rank and file of soldiers who had never taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States?' I have to say it does not disfranchise them. The Constitutional Amendment disqualifies from holding office certain persons who had taken the oath to support the United States and then engaged in rebellion, or gave aid and comfort to it. This class of persons are disfranchised, and all other persons are entitled to vote."

CONFIRMED AND REJECTED.

The Senate, in executive session to-day, confirmed the nomination of Benjamin Simpson as Indian Agent for Oregon, and rejected James S. Hunt as Collector of Internal Revenue for the Ninth District of Kentucky.

CONGRESSIONAL CAUCUS.

At a caucus of Republican Senators and Representatives, held to-night, General Banks, chairman, and Representatives King and Hays, secretaries, Senator Drake introduced the subject of the adjournment of Congress, but it was objected to by Senator Wilson, who claimed that the caucus was called with the distinct understanding that this question was not to be considered. Senator Drake expressed himself satisfied with the explanation. The sole object of the meeting was to take action concerning future political movements North and South, and Messrs. Schenck, Donnelly, Pile, Kelly, Wilson of Massachusetts, and others, spoke of the necessity of completing Congressional organization. The debate was free from excitement, and after appointing a Congressional Committee, consisting of one member from each State, the caucus adjourned.

FROM MEXICO.

The Traitor Mendez Killed and His Forces Routed in Battle.

MAXIMILIAN AT THE HEAD OF HIS CONCENTRATED FORCES.

Battle Reported to Have Occurred.

1,000 IMPERIALISTS HORS DU COMBAT.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Later advices from most portions of Central Mexico have been received. Private letters state that the city of Morelia was occupied by the Liberals on the 17th of February.

The entire State of Michoacan was free of Imperialist troops on February 25th.

Generals Regules and Corrona left Morelia for Queretaro with nine thousand men, and at last advices had arrived at Celaya, ten leagues from Queretaro. The entire Liberal force in the vicinity of Queretaro were placed under the command of Corrona.

From Cuernaracu, on the 6th, Gen. Alvarez, Sr., writes: It is rumored here that the traitor, Gen. Mendez, and forces were routed in battle by Gen. Escabedo's command. Mendez is among the killed. Miramon attempted to make a junction with Mendez's forces before the battle and was routed and lost both legs in the engagement.

General Porferio Diaz is threatening the city of Puebla, with six thousand men under his command.

From the tenor of letters received, well informed parties are confident that no further engagements of consequence will take place between the contending forces. It is believed Maximilian concentrated his forces in a body with a view of making terms with the Liberal Government prior to evacuating the country. No battle between any portion of the forces under the direct command of Maximilian had taken place at last dates, and none would occur.

A letter from Colima, dated March 10th, says: From Tepic we hear that the small garrison of Acapulco landed at San Blas. General Loyada was sending home the poor victims of misplaced confidence. Here everything is quiet and trade is improving. Mexican dollars are scarce, no conducta having arrived from the interior. The latest news from the City of Mexico makes us believe the Empire is about playing out. Maximilian is making his last effort, actually gone to war propria persona, and holds Queretaro with ten thousand men against the combined forces of Escobedo and other chiefs, who outnumber him considerably. The report is current that a battle took place a few days ago, in which about one thousand Imperialists were placed hors du combat.

MATAMORAS, March 16, via GALVESTON, March 25.—Reports of the Liberal defeat near Queretaro have reached here and are extensively circulated, but there is no truth in them. No news of a general engagement had been received in San Luis up to the 28th ult. Maximilian, who moved out from Queretaro, had returned. The Liberals had advanced their lines within seven miles of Queretaro, and heavy guns were sent to the front from San Luis. Juares was still there.

Rumors of an attempted arrangement by Maximilian with the Liberals are very rife.

Querago is said to have been defeated and taken prisoner at Zeiaya.

GALVESTON, March 25.—Rio Grande dates to the 22d, have been received. There was no change in the position of the troops at Queretaro. Imperial supplies were scarce, and all provisions were seized for the use of the army. The Imperialists were deserting by companies. Both parties are levying heavy taxes on the inhabitants. The Liberals seized a conducta with 800,000 pieces of silver. Pillaging gangs are in all parts of the country.

The steamer Moro Castle, from Havana, reports that twenty French steamers from Vera Cruz arrived just as she was leaving.

Juarez was at San Luis Potosi, where the Liberals concentrated. The Imperial force would leave soon and a decisive battle is expected near San Luis. The Liberals are closely besieging Vera Cruz and exchanging shots with the garrison. Gen. Costagnay arrived at Havana on the 15th. Bazine was expected hourly on the frigate Salveroir.

FROM BOSTON.

Dry Goods Establishment Damaged—Ten Hours a Day's Labor in Cotton and Woolen Mills After April 1st—Operatives Not to be Submitted To—Master Plumbers Discontinue the Eight Hour System—The Shops Deserted.

BOSTON, March 25.—Julius G. Tucker's dry goods store was damaged by fire this evening. Loss $40,000. Insurance $22,000.

It is stated the National Mill Spinners' Association recently notified the agents and treasurers of some cotton and woolen manufacturing establishments in this vicinity that they shall work ten hours a day after April first. At an informal meeting of some of the Treasurers to-day the subject was discussed, and it appeared to be the almost unanimous opinion that no dictation on the part of operatives should be submitted to, even if the mills were compelled to stop. A suspension of manufacturing at the present time would relieve rather than embarrass owners.

The Master Plumbers of this city having notified their workmen on Saturday afternoon that the eight hour system for a day's work would be discontinued after April 1st., the latter immediately left work and to-day the work shops have been nearly all closed.

Railroad Ferry Difficulty—A most a Serious Riot—Quiet Restored.

ALBANY, March 25—Considerable excitement existed to-day at the railroad ferry, in consequence of a difficulty between the proprietors of the South ferry and the officers of the Western, or Boston, Railroad. The ferry proprietors purchased the land adjoining the ferry slip, used by the railroad company, and said company not having removed the bridge and other property attached within a specified time, the proprietors denied their right to take it away. The Railroad folks, however, brought a large party to the spot and removed the bridge by force. At one time a serious riot was threatened, the crowd being large and various weapons were drawn. But after a few arrests quiet was restored.

The Peabody Educational Fund—Plan of the Trustees.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The Peabody educational fund trustees have finished their session. The whole subject of the trust was discussed. From common investigation and inquiry, a report was made by Bishop McIlvaine that for the present the promotion of primary or common school education by the now existing or other agencies will be the leading object. To aid this design normal school education, to prepare teachers, will be favored, and scholarships endowed in the now existing Southern halls of learning. Education in aid of the application of science to industrial pursuits, will be another purpose of the trustees. A general agent, under the direction of the executive committee, is to do much of the business. Rev. Dr. Sears, of Brown's University, was elected Chairman. He is to appoint an executive committee of five, to carry out, with the general agent, the views of the board. The next annual meeting will take place in this city, on the 3d of June, and the Chairman is authorized to call meetings at will. The Executive Board agreed to meet at Richmond on the third Tuesday in January. The Executive Committee comprises Messrs McIlvaine, Aiken, Evarts, Graham, Eaton and the Chairman, ex officio. A Committee was appointed to obtain an act of incorporation from the New York Legislature. Samuel Wettmore was appointed Treasurer.

South American Affairs.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Lima letters state that the unpopularity of President Prado is made manifest by the mutinies of troops. The obnoxious poll tax recently levied has been suspended. Tucker, the Confederate admiral of the Peruvian Navy, has resigned. The question of religious freedom is being agitated.

The United States steamer Pensacola has arrived from Callao and Valparaiso.

A letter says the question of a truce with Spain is definitely rejected by Peru. The mediation offered by the United States was still under consideration. A serious objection to its acceptance was the recent misunderstanding between Admiral Tucker and Captain Stanley, of the United States steamer Tuscarawas, owing to which the usual courtesies between Peru and the United States have been suspended. Gen. Kilpatrick was trying to straighten the entanglement. The U. S. steamer Dakotah was at Valparaiso.

Difficulty at Panama Between the Authorities and British Consul.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The Herald's Panama correspondence says: A British frigate appeared off Carthagena on the 27th of February, and the Captain addressed a note to the President, insisting that the British Consul should receive the mails before they were sent to the local postoffice, and that the President should apologize for offences in respect to the matter. The President evaded a decided answer to these propositions. A war steamer in the service of Mosquera came into the port in the meanwhile and was seized by the Englishman. The demands were reiterated with threats of taking other measures in the event of non-compliance, and the President fearing bombardment, succumbed and apologized, promising to do better in the future.

Fenian Banner Difficulty.

OTTOWA, C. W., March 25.—The appearance of a Fenian banner in the procession on St. Patrick's day is still causing much comment. The petition presented to the Mayor to inquire into the matter has been referred to the Solicitor General.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Michigan Legislature concluded its session yesterday. The eight hour bill was lost.

The Detroit Board of Trade has also abandoned the cental system, in consequence of the action of neighboring cities.

A dispatch from Ottawa, Canada, states that eight thousand tons of rails have been ordered from England to repair the Grand Trunk Railroad track.

At Fishkill, New York, on Saturday, a mob seized the property of a Mrs. Davis, the renewal of a demonstration against her for alleged improper intimacy with Joseph Buil, in her husband's employ.

Good advice was the only punishment inflicted upon three women by Justice Cornwall, for disturbing the devotions of a colored congregation, in Brooklyn, on Sunday. They cat-called, groaned, and showered split-peas, spit-balls, and other missiles from their place of concealment in the gallery of the church.

The trouble with the miners in Schuylkill county continues. On Friday night last the Burrell tavern, near Malone Plains, was surrounded by a party of six or eight "Molly Maguires," and the proprietor ordered to surrender all his valuables. He refused and fired shots into the crowd, killing one and wounding another. The wounded man was arrested, but refused to divulge anything concerning the secret order to County Controller's Report.

By order of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, the GAZETTE has been selected to circulate the very important report of the fiscal affairs of Allegheny county, as presented by the faithful and efficient controller, Henry Lambert, Esq. Much valuable information is contained in the report, and the entire document will amply repay perusal and examination. The selection of the GAZETTE to perform this highly important distribution is a matter of congratulation with us, although the Courts have always recognized the claims of our journal as an unequaled advertising medium. Business men will consult their own interests by following the example set by the county authorities and advertize in the GAZETTE, as it reaches as many readers as any newspaper published in Western Pennsylvania. Perhaps in referring to the award having been made to the GAZETTE for the circulation of this important official report, we should say that the Commercial has also been similarly favored. The Dispatch and GAZETTE formerly were entrusted with the distribution.

Mr. Ford offered a petition for the grading and paving of Morris street from Penn to Smallman streets in the Ninth ward; and of Mulberry alley from Morris to Rush streets. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Mr. Ford offered a resolution instructing the Street Committee, in conjunction with the Regulator, to propose a general plan of sewerage for the city, its expenses to be paid from the contingent fund. Read and referred to the Street Committee with instructions to report probable cost of said general plan.

Mr. O'Neill offered a resolution authorizing the purchase of a lot of ground known as the Hospital lot, in the rear of the engine house, for $5,000.

Mr. Reed moved an amendment, that the purchase shall be made if the payment will not be required before next year. As amended the resolution passed.

Mr. Hare reported from the Police Committee a remonstrance against the passage of the Bill now before the Legislature dividing the city into four police districts, and offered the following resolution;

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the city of Pittsburgh, that the act now before the Legislature entitled "An Act dividing the City of Pittsburgh into Police Districts," meets their disapproval, and that our Senators and Representatives be urgently requested to prevent its passage.

Mr. O'Neill thought the bill should be passed, and argued at some length to show its favorable qualities. He, in the course of his remarks, asked "are the members of the Police Committee cats' paws to others, and if not, how are they injured, or why does the bill pinch their toes?"

Mr. Ford rose to his feet and said that he would allow no such insult to pass by unnoticed, and the gentleman had no right to refer to the committee in such terms. He called the member to order, as he had already spoken longer than the by-laws permitted.

This point of order regarding time was not sustained, and Mr. O'Neill was permitted to proceed. His defense of the bill was argumentative and able, and in his painting the bill was just what Pittsburgh sorely needs.

President Steel, vacating the chair in favor of Mr. Tomlinson, spoke in opposition to the bill. He admired the clever way in which the accountants had drawn it, but he would not give much for the city's or county's share of the fines and costs resulting from the action. He was opposed to the passage of the bill.

Mr. Ford next took the floor, and made a strong speech in opposition to the bill. He viewed it in the same light as Alderman Steel, and took occasion to say that Mayor McCarthy's administration had been a successful one and that he had paid several thousand dollars more than any of his predecessors to the city treasury. If his administration had been so frightfully lax, there must have been "something rotten in Denmark" before he came into office. Crime was upon the increase in every city of the Union, and our city was no exception to the general rule.

Mr. O'Neill moved to lay the resolution on the table. The ayes and nays were called, which resulted in killing the motion by a vote of 18 to 6.

The resolution was then voted upon. The ayes and nays were called, resulting as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Ford, Hare, Hempbill, House Jones, McQuewan, McClelland, McGowan, Patchell, Reed, Roberts, Robb, Siebert, Tomlinson, Torley, Verner, Welsh, and President Steel—18.

Nays—Messrs. Barnhill, Brush, Coursin, O'Neill, Rebman, and Sloan—6.

Mr. Torley offered a resolution instructing the Gas Committee to inquire into the right of the Gas Works to charge full rates for gas consumed in the engine houses. Being city property the charges should only be according to city rates. Read and adopted.

Mr. Ford offered a resolution instructing the Street Committee, acting with the Recording Regulator and City Solicitor, to examine into the propriety of introducing the Nicholson pavement. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Brush offered a petition for the grading and paving of Townsend street between Decatur and Clark streets. Referred to the Street Committee.

On motion adjourned.

In the matter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railway Company, asking to be relieved from paying the assessment for the sewer on Pennsylvania avenue, the Committee reported that in their opinion Councils had no further jurisdiction. In reference to granting the Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Spring Garden Passenger Railway Company the right to lay a track on Hand street, the Committee reported favorably. The report was accepted.

Negley, President of the Soldiers' Monument Association, enclosing a resolution from the Ladies Committee, asking a temporary suspension of the ordinance prohibiting the fire companies from soliciting individual subscriptions, the object being to afford the firemen an opportunity to compete for the new hose carriage, purchased by the Association, at the forthcoming Fair. The communication was received, but no further action was taken.

Also, a resolution to pay Abdiel M'Clure, late County Recorder, $21 80. The petition of Mr. Dilworth was referred to Finance Committee with power to act. The resolution was read three times and adopted.

J. F. Slagle, City Solicitor, submitted a communication relative to the digest and codification of the laws and ordinances relating to the city. He stated that he had the acts of Assembly digested, and ready for the printers, and requested the appointment of a committee for the purpose of examining the work, and making definite arrangements with Messrs. Errett & Andersen, City Printers. The communication was accepted.

A communication from the Citizens' Insurance Company, with a resolution to refund to them $191.59, being the amount of tax overpaid for 1866. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Armstrong offered a resolution instructing the Gas Committee to lay a gas pipe on Morton street, from Penn to Butler streets, which was read and referred to the Committee on Gas Lighting.

Mr. Gallaher offered a resolution providing that the Street Committee be requested to place index boards on the corners of the principal streets and alleys. The resolution was accepted, read three times and adopted. C. C. non-concurred.

On motion, adjourned.

Miller vs. Wiedmann.

As different statements have been made regarding this case, we publish the sworn statement of Mr. J. W. Miller:

Commonwealth vs. A. Wiedmann. Charge—felonious assault and battery, brought by J. W. Miller before Alderman McMasters. Testimony of the prosecutor, J. W. Miller, given on the hearing of the above charge, before the said Alderman, on Thursday, 21st day of March, A. D., 1867, at 4 o'clock P. M.: I met Wiedmann yesterday, in the hall in front of his office. Wiedmann owes me a small bill for which he gave me his note. I sued Wiedmann for that indebtedness before Alderman Strain; said suit has not been adjudicated yet. We were talking in the hall about said suit. Wiedmann said that he would non-suit me; no angriness or bad feeling was shown on either side. Wiedmann went into his office and I followed him; we continued our conversation about said civil suit pending before Alderman Strain. I remained in his office about fifteen minutes; I was standing with my back in front of the fire grate; Wiedmann was sitting on a chair; I said to Wiedmann that he played a dirty, nasty, stinking trick on me. I repeated the same words again. Wiedmann went to the door leading out into the hall and opened the same, requesting me to leave his office from four to six times. I did not go; I said to him that I was not in great haste to leave his office. He then walked up to me, took me by the arm and pushed me two or three steps towards the door. I then put my hand upon his breast and pushed him away from me. Wiedmann went to a cupboard and took a pistol out of it, pointing the same at me, with the remarks, which I don't know positively, G-d-m, I shoot you if you don't go out. I walked out, and met Mr. Hague in the hall. I requested Mr. Hague to arrest Wiedmann. Mr. Hague opened the door of Wiedmann's office and said to me, that he could not arrest him without a warrant.

Cross-examination—We were talking in the hall friendly; I was not on very good terms with Wiedmann for some time; he was not very excited nor was he violent when he took me by the arm. I did not think that he intended to shoot me when he pointed the pistol at me; (pistol produced) I could not say positively whether this is the pistol; it looks like the one he held in his hand; he could have shot me if he wanted, but as he is a man of great passion I thought I better go out, as I did not know what he might do, I was not in great haste to leave the office even then when he pointed the pistol at me, neither was I much afraid of him. If I had left his office when he told me to go out, there would have been no occasion for him to point the pistol at me; I am not afraid of him yet. (Signed) J. W. MILLER.

I certify that the foregoing is substantially a true and correct statement of J. W. Miller, given before me on the hearing of the above case.

SAMUEL MCMASTERS, Alderman.

President Steel of the Common Council Complimented.

Last evening, before the business of the Common Council had commenced, City Solicitor Slagle made his appearance on the floor and in a neat and fitting speech proceeded to present President Steel with a gavel, on behalf of the members of the branch of council over which he presides. Mr. Slagle stated that the members felt anxious to express the high regard and estimation in which they held their presiding officer and to show their appreciation of the able and impartial manner he had, during the past year, discharged his delicate and arduous duties. President Steel returned his hearty thanks to the gentlemen who had thus honored him with the present. He did not know that he was entitled to any particular credit for the performance of the duties of his office, and if he were, it was owing to the hearty co-operation received from the members. With the elegant present they had chosen to make him in his hands, he trusted hereafter to exercise the duties of his office, as he had always striven to perform them, with impartiality, due prudence and brotherly regard.

The gavel is one of the most beautiful and artistic pieces of fine mechanism we have ever seen. It was manufactured by Messrs. James R. Reed & Company, the well known jewelers on Fifth street. The handle is of polished ebony wood, while the hammer is solid ivory, turned and ornamented in neat style. Round the centre is a band nearly an inch wide of solid gold, which bears the following inscription:

"Presented by the members of the Common Council of the City of Pittsburgh to their President, Thomas Steel, Esq., as a mark of their esteem for him as a man, and his ability as a presiding officer, 1867."

The edges of the gold band are handsomely etched and chased, and upon the whole it is most creditable to Reed & Company, as a finished and neat piece of workmanship.

Joseph Horne & Co's Announcement.

This enterprising wholesale and retail trimming and notion house, Nos. 77 and 79 Market street, announce a grand spring opening of new goods to-day. The goods are specially commended to the milliners, and embrace all the latest styles and fabrics introduced in the Eastern cities. Bonnets, hats, trimming, ribbons, flowers, &c., of beautiful descriptions, will be found at prices as low as rule the Eastern markets. The retail patrons of this house will find the stock of notions, laces, embroideries, skirts and trimmings unusually large, well selected, and attractive. See the advertisement in another column.

Attempted Burglary and Arrest of an Alleged Burglar.

We mentioned in our last issue how a drunken merchant fell into the cellar of the jewelry house of H. Richardson & Co. corner of Fifth and Market streets, and frightened away burglars who were plying their nefarious vocation. It appears that the theives first forced an entrance into the picture frame manufactory of Messrs. Barker & Hazeltine, located on the second floor of the building, and immediately above the jewelry store. Establishing this room as a base of operations, the burglars chalked out a square on the floor sufficiently large enough to admit the passage of a man's body, and had bored quite a number of holes preparatory to cutting out the boards. While working they were disturbed by the cries of the poor wretch who had toppled into the cellar, and made a precipitate retreat. They left behind their tools, and also some articles of clothing, and a small bag. The police were informed of the attempted burglary, and the articles left were placed in their hands. On the bag the name of D. Freel, Blairsville, was painted, and taking this as a clue, officer Dressler was dispatched to Blairsville in search of the supposed burglar. The officer learned that Freel was a peddlar by occupation, and that he was in Pittsburgh, boarding at the house of Frank Munday on Webster street, between High and Tunnel. With this information the officer returned, and steps were immediately taken to arrest Freel. Munday's house was visited, and it was ascertained that Freel was still boarding there, and that a neck-tie, which was among the articles found in Barker & Hazeltine's, belonged to Charles Maguire, another boarder. It appears however, that Freel was not in the city at the time of the attempted burglary, and as he bears an unexceptionable character for honesty, the finding of the bag does not criminate him in the affair, as probably it was purloined from him.

Maguire was arrested at a later hour, and was locked up for a hearing. The other parties have thus far eluded capture, but our excellent police force will no doubt secure them in good season. Two carpet sacks belonging to the parties were taken possession of, and, on being examined, were found to contain complete outfits of burglarious implements, such as files, saws, bits, braces, skeleton keys, etc. Maguire is now in the lock up awaiting a hearing.

The police are certainly deserving of much credit for the skillful manner in which they have worked up this case from so slight a clue.

The Courts—District, Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions—cost the county during the year ending February 1st, 1867, the huge sum of $46,642, an increase of $12,614 over the previous year. For jury fees $27,160 was paid; to the Sheriff, for drawing jurors, $1,399; witness fees, $4,720; tipstaves, $3,445; interpreters, $318. The increased pay to jurors, who now get $2.50 per day, will alone increase the Court expenses about $20,000 per annum.

Diamond Jewelry.—Gems of the first water, set in rings, pins and earrings, at the most reasonable and inducing prices, will be found at Reineman, Meyran & Siedle's well known and popular jewelry store, No. 29 Fifth street. A large stock of general jewelry is offered at less that present eastern prices. Silver plated sets of table ware on hand in new and fashionable styles. For any and everything in their line favor this firm with a call.

We would Suggest that foot pavements be laid in the gutters for the benefit of the pedestrians along some of our more busy streets. It is awkward for a crowd of foot passengers to get mixed up with passing wheelbarrows and piled up dry goods boxes on the sidewalk; and as the barrows and boxes have an undoubted right there, it is only fair that some accommodation should be provided for pedestrians.

Is That All?—The amount of fines and forfeitures paid in by Justices during 1866, was $108 84, by four—A. Ammon, East Birmington, $53 34; J. H. Miller, Harrison township, $8 00; D. Kennedy, West Elizabeth, $3 00; and J. W. Ewing, (sale of an estray), $44 50. Are there no others who should have paid over? The County Controller's record will not be disputed, but how about the Justices?

For Prothonotary.—Elsewhere we publish the card of Jacob H. Walter, Esq., offering himself as a candidate for Prothonotary. Mr. Walter has for a long number of years creditably filled this office and has at all times been recognized as an earnest, hard-working and consistent member of the Union Republican party. His selection will prove a guarantee of the proper discharge of the duties of the office.

The Coroner's Office, in 1866, cost the county $3,595, ($1,515 more than in 1865,) out of which the coroner received $1,196, for inquests, witnesses, jury fees, &c. For analyzing stomachs Prof. Wuth received $900, and Prof. Jillson was paid $250 for like services. For post mortem examinations $525 was expended, and $644 for funeral expenses and graves in Hilldale Cemetery.

If the Ladies would only stand a little nearer to the shop windows, or a little further off from them, or would consent to stand anywhere definitely on the pavement, they would confer an appreciable benefit on the men who have to dodge so wearily to get past them.

A Large Reward is about to be offered, as we are informed, for the discovery of a loafer standing on any of our streets. They used to be very plenty here, but now not one can be found on the corners or on the Postoffice steps, even on Saturday night or during Sunday.

The Next Effort of the Darwinian philosophers will be to prove that Pittsburgh corner loafers cannot be traced backward and upward to the monkey. This is well, as, according to the Darwinians, it will be assigning loafers and men to different origins.

The Ladies always had the reputation of being pointed in their conversation; they are now pointed in their costume. This is an improvement—for when they wore "tilters" they were pointed at.

THE CANADIAN CONFEDERATION.

Recently we ventured some animadversions upon the course of Mr. Banks, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Raymond, of New York, in the House of Representatives, touching the projected organization of the Canadian Viceroyalty. How men of sense and intelligence could regard that measure as menacing, or as designed to menace, the security of the Government or people of this Republic, it was impossible for us to conceive. It has been evident, for years past, to all observers of ordinary circumspection, that its American provinces not only involved Great Britain in onerous expenditures, but were, in addition, a source of constant perplexity and annoyance.

These impressions have since been confirmed in us by intercourse with American citizens resident in the British provinces, under circumstances affording them favorable opportunities for ascertaining popular sentiment, and for detecting the motives and purposes of the Government.

The Confederation scheme did not have its inception in unfriendliness towards this country. It was not conceived as a threat, like the French invasion of Mexico, with an imperial regime issuing therefrom. It proceeded rather from a desire on the part of the Home Government to get rid of the expense and responsibility attending close connection with these colonies. The intention is to throw the Confederation measurably, if not altogether, upon its own resources, compelling the inhabitants to shape their own destiny, and provide for their own hereafter.

The proposed change in governmental organization will not add to the offensive or defensive strength of the provinces. Indeed, there are reasons for apprehending that the change will tend rather to weakness than to augmented power.

The Confederation scheme was not devised to meet a want felt by the inhabitants of the provinces or to gratify a demand proceeding from them. They were not consulted. Had they been, their protest against it would have approached to something like unanimity. The scheme was hatched by the royal government, and, so far, has been sustained, on this side of the Atlantic, almost exclusively by men holding office under it, and those over whom they exert a controlling influence. The popular opposition is so violent that there will be great difficulty in having the plan adopted, and its inauguration will be attended with much discontent. A powerful party exists, ready to go to any extreme in order to frustrate it; and this party will increase in numbers and resources when the apprehension of Fenian raids shall subside.

The completeness with which the people have been ignored in this matter, furnishes an effective argument to those who are really desirous of annexation to the United States. The immense progress made on this side of the border, during the last few years, has contributed to the same result. All we have to do is to wait the natural course of events.

THE COMMERCIAL.

Last Thursday it became evident that the bill to increase the capital stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which the Governor had vetoed, could not be passed in defiance thereof. In the afternoon another bill was introduced into the Legislature embodying modifications so as to relieve entirely the objections raised to the former one; and this new bill passed both Houses before adjournment and was approved by the Governor. Late in the evening misleading telegraphic dispatches, in reference to this matter, were sent to all the newspapers of this city, and were published on Friday morning. On Friday afternoon other dispatches, equally wild and deceiving, were published in the Chronicle. On Saturday morning the GAZETTE dispatches from Harrisburg presented fully all the facts in the case, relieving its readers completely from misapprehension. On Monday morning—four days after the transaction—the Commercial managed to find out what had been done, and to let its readers know. All this while it had at the head of its columns the standing boast that "the Commercial is the only paper in Pittsburgh that uses the telegraph freely." A simple special telegram to Harrisburg, and the reply thereto, enabled us promptly to correct the errors which were in circulation; while the Commercial, according to its own confession, waited for a "letter," from its "special correspondent." This only illustrates the difference there is perpetually between the vaunts of our cotemporary and its performances.

—All last week the Commercial was under a violent agitation of mind approaching to distraction, about the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, its purposes and methods, and the conduct of the Legislature and the Executive thereupon. Like a mad bull, it roared, and foamed, and pawed and tossed, threatening to do most dreadful things. Its fury frightened, not only women and children, but full-grown men, who ought to have understood the nature of the animal better, and preserved a decent composure. Having exhausted its belligerent energy, it has now become so entirely docile that a little child can lead it this way or that. In an ungracious manner it makes confession of its recent unreasonable wrath and folly. Take a sample:

"The Company is understood to have entered upon enterprises in our State requiring this additional capital; and as advocates of a Free system of Railroads for the development of the State, we certainly do not feel like raising a single word of objection. On the contrary, what will multiply Railroads and thus develop our State, should, with proper restrictions, be granted. What we ask for others, we are for granting to the Pennsylvania Company; but we do insist that it is not only illiberal but wrong and detrimental to the welfare of the State for it to attempt to deny to others what it asks and receives for itself. We say that it would be but simple justice in that Company, while asking for and receiving the benefits of liberal legislation for itself, to interpose no objection to an effective Free Railroad Law, whereby the people at large seek to obtain the same benefits."

Last week, when we urged those same considerations, and sundry others of like cogency, the Commercial rejected them all with the fiercest indignation. It admitted, indeed, that we had a good deal of "valuable information" (which it was never suspected of,) but then that information had no bearing on the points at issue. The truth is our neighbor was so much excited as not to be able to take the bearings of any matter whatever. All it could do was to splurge, immeasurably.

Now, we take no small credit to ourselves for having reduced the Commercial to a more sensible and becoming frame of mind. If it would only change to an afternoon paper, so as to follow our lead entirely, we should have high hopes of its discretion hereafter. As it probably will not do that, the public will be constrained to submit to the discomfort of its occasional aberrations. However, these will soon be so well understood all round as to occasion merriment rather than alarm.

The most expensive luxury in Galveston, Texas, is to be sick. The physicians and surgeons of that neighborhood have combined for higher professional fees, and have placed their rates at four times as high as those received, we dare say, by more competent members of the medical fraternity in this city.

GEN. LONGSTREET exhibits the same strong sense that characterized his military career, in assuring the people of the South that no humiliation is implied in accepting the terms of Reconstruction laid down by Congress.

IT is a singular fact that no news has been received from Ireland inside of a fortnight. What does it mean? Is England afraid to let the Irish of America know what their brethren at home are doing.

IT seems probable that Mr. Jefferson Davis will soon be released from confinement on his own recognizance. He certainly ought to be put upon his trial or else liberated.

THE Miner's Union of Schuylkill county have given a fresh explanation of what they mean by bringing men under their "jurisdiction."

THANKS.—Hon. George Wilson, our attentive member of the House, at Harrisburg, has our thanks for important public documents.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITOL.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, March 23, 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A session in Congress is doubtless a touchstone. The world outside may say what they please in reference to unappreciated merit in this forum of great debate. I am of the opinion that no where does real worth and true merit more readily or surely find its place than on the floor of the House. There are of course intrigues and schemes of advacement and circumvention, into which other than true worth are for the time counted as the surest elements of success; but the fruits of these unworthy combinations, whether they be pride gratified or pelf secured, turn to ashes on the greedy lip.

Mr. Stevens doubtless never entered into bargains for place or power in his life, and yet there he sits the acknowledged leader of the House, because worthy to be such. When he speaks, the man of thought, learning, philosophy, statesmanship hears the deductions of a ripe experience; gathers the rich results of careful culture; the wise generalizations of a powerful mind which can winnow as by magic the wheat from the chaff, and apply the wisdom of the ages to the living, moving times. I think many men have an erroneous idea regarding Mr. Stevens. He is by many held to be a harsh and bitter cynic: a man of power and genius it is true, but a cruel and vindictive man. This I hold to be all wrong. There is, it is true, a mawkish sensibility, quite in vogue, with which he does not sympathize. He does not see why Congress should vote a million dollars to men who are raising full purses as gifts to the "stern statesman" at Fortress Monroe. But no man is more ready than he to take care of the soldier's widow and orphan in our midst; no man readier than he to apply the great rules of justice to the nation's case, viz: make those who made the cripples, the orphans and the widows, all over the land, the first to relieve them. In this matter all writers upon international law are open for favorable reference—Grotius, Burlemagine, Vattel and the lesser lights of the ages. And when I say "all over the land" I mean it. Not simply among those who stood by the flag at the North, but throughout the Southern country are these helpless and suffering ones. Let the rich landowners of the South, let the hordes of desperadoes who are here seeking office of the President, see to it that a portion of the abundance still their's be expended upon the bereaved families of those whom they coaxed, forced or frightened into that hell-born rebellion. If Congress would vote a million, let it be then for the widows of those who died that this Congress might live. Mr. Stevens is called a cynic simply for holding these just views, and perhaps for expressing them in a manner and style so terse and vigorous that one is reminded of Tacitus or Sallust. For what the world thinks of public men is due more than itself is aware to their modes of expression. There are those who clothe the most deformed and hideous ideas in a garb of attractive verbiage and parade them in such wholesome and winning aspects that their distortion and loathsomeness are hidden from the casual looker on. Another drops a sturdy, salutary truth among men like a thunderbolt, and the world is frightened at it. The cry still is—"Release unto us Barabbas!"

His wit is for his friends entirely free from sting. It is often keen, it is true, but never cruel. I do not dislike my friend that he carries a Damascus blade, though it cut like Saladin's in the incomparable story of Scott. He bears that blade for the enemy of his country, or the foe to decency in the private walks and ways of life. It is not cruel to use it upon them both to cut and thrust. The person who shall write a good biography of this grand old man will have produced one of the most valuable books of the century. There you shall find the record of eloquence used only in worthy causes; of labor which saw its reward in the blessings of education for the poor and the friendless; of envy and vituperation showered mercilessly upon a head planning the emancipation of a race that could never return favors or even conciliate the powerful. Through all the rough web of a long life will also be seen a golden thread of kindliness to the lowly, and of regard for the rights of the humblest. Characters, the possession of which set men apart and raise them above their fellows, devote their possessors to the peril of storm and lightning. Blessed are they who carry within themselves the light that shines on the darkest path, so it be on the path of duty.

He will show that Mr. Stevens was not a leader for his much speaking, but because he has ever been a faithful actor. His last speech, delivered this week by his friend, Mr. McPherson, because its author was unequal to the task from weakness and sickness, is one of his longest. Yet none who heard him but wished it longer. Though he is or has been a great reader, he seldom mars his speeches by quotations, and he never quotes for the sake of expressing his own thoughts in another's language. The concentrated vigor of this man can be shown only in his own modes of expression. I trust it may yet be many years ere the friends of justice and human rights are called upon to pass upon the merits of this supposed biographer, or write the epitaph of this much-toiling, much-enduring man. Yet if next week or next month the fiat should go forth that shall end his services to the country, how blest to have lived to see what he has seen—a land rescued from the whip of a slave master: a land scorning the rule of a renegade and making it's laws through the righteous tribunals of a people's might without favor asked of its unworthy servant. Through the storm of war he beholds the bow of promise; his country rejuvenated and the foul blot of slavery wiped forever from her escutcheon.

RADICAL.

—M. Delmille, a Belgian advocate has just made an important archaeological discovery. He found in the Lake of Virelies, belonging to the Prince de Chimay, the remains of a lacustral station similar to those explored for some years past in the lakes of Geneva, Constance and Neufchatel. The drag has brought to the surface of the water remains of all kinds, and the nature of which authorizes the assumption that the locality was inhabited in the pre-historic period called the age of bronze, that is to say, at least five thousand years ago.

—A late Prussian military gazette publishes regulations concerning arms and standards taken in open battle. A reward of sixty ducats is to be paid to every regiment that succeeded in taking a gun from the enemy while it was in use. Forty ducats is the prize for a flag taken under fire. The money so obtained, if amounting to five hundred thalers, is to form a fund for the whole regiment, for the benefit of officers and privates.

—The emancipation of the Russian serfs is still incomplete. According to an official return just published, there were at the beginning of the present year 3,965,410 peasants still under obligation, while the number of those who had been freed from their obligations up to that date is 5,810,607.

PITTSBURGH, May 19, 1866.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith:

GENTLEMEN—During a visit to the West, last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health: having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterwards yielded my prejudices, and, after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much,) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation, in order that others, suffering as I have, may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended that I use them regularly.

Yours, very respectfully,
E. BOURNE,
No. 45 Market street.

THE INDIANS AND THE WHITE PINE.

Although long known to the aborigines of America, Dr. George W. Swett, of Boston, has brought into shape for convenient use, a most valuable preparation called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which for a number of years has given great satisfaction in the cure of all those ailments dependent on an inflamed or irritated condition of the mucous membranes of the animal organism. For gravel, diabetes, dropsy, chronic bronchitis, nasal catarrh, constipation, when depending on a debilitated state of the intestines, it is one of the most valuable discoveries recently added to pharmaceutical medicine. It is likewise a most valuable compound for diseases of the kidneys and bladder generally, as any one can satisfy himself upon a single trial. Every one knows the healing virtue of the white pine for sores and ulcers, but Dr. Swett has gone to work and prepared from the sweet inside bark of that valuable tree a compound that will meet every indication where the pine would be valuable.

It is confidently recommended for the following ailments:
Diabetes in young or middle aged people;
Diabetes in old people;
Stoppage of the Urine;
The same difficulty in children during the night;
Gravel, Kidney Trouble in old people;
Ulcerated Kidneys, Ulcerated Bladder;
Discharge of mucus or pus, or blood from the bladder;
Bright's Disease of the Kidneys;
Pain in the Kidneys or Small of the Back;
Pain in the Bladder, Heat and Scalding;
Ask for POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND. For sale by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. Keyser's great medicine store, 140 Wood street. mh15:d&w

PITTSBURGH
LIGHTNING ROD WORKS.
MUNSON'S COPPER TUBULAR
LIGHTNING RODS.
With Spiral Flanges.

This Rod has the power to carry off as much electricity as twenty common iron rods; in other words is equal to a solid bar of iron thirty inches in circumference. It does not rust; it cannot get out of order. It has received the first premiums at very many State and District Fairs and Institutes. It was never beaten in any contest. It has been recommended by several hundred Professors in the best Schools and Colleges in the United States as the best Rod ever invented. In this list we may name Philotus Dean, Professor of Natural Sciences, Pittsburgh High School; George Woods, President Western University of Pennsylvania, and I. C. Pershing, President Pittsburgh Female College.

Among the hundreds of buildings upon which this Rod was erected within the past year in this vicinity we may mention the Locomotive Works; Banner Cotton Mill; Allegheny Flouring Mills; First Presbyterian Church of Allegheny; Second Ward School House, Pittsburgh; City Poor House, Pittsburgh; St. Bridget's Church, Pittsburgh, &c., &c. In the surrounding country many of these Rods have been erected on residences or public buildings. It may be examined on the Lutheran Church at Johnstown; on the Disciples Church at New Castle; on Dr. Reed's residence Hickory; on residences of Esquire Jancey Lawrenceville; E. M. Fulton, McKeesport; Wm. Irving, Frankfort Springs; S. P. & J. N. Large, Elizabethtown; Col. Wm. Miller, Port Perry; F. Baker, Neville Island; J. Lockhart, Canonsburg; G. W. Lewis, Sharpsburg; J. F. Muller, Freedom; Friend Buxton, Bakerstown, &c., &c., &c. This Rod is adopted by all who want Lightning Rods wherever it is introduced, and in an experience of ten years we have never known an instance of damage to a building protected by it, while many instances occur every year of damage to buildings upon which iron rods have been erected; so noticeable has this fact become in communities where attention is called to the subject, that we are almost daily called on to take down the iron rods and erect the Munson Copper Rod.

Price, 30 cents per foot and $3 for points on each rod. Our workmen will go to any part of the country without extra charge.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

FELLOWS'
WORM LOZENGES,
ARE, WITHOUT EXCEPTION,
THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE OF THE AGE,
Comprising, as they do, REMARKABLE POWERS IN EXPELLING WORMS, with Pleasant Taste and Perfect Safety.
THEY CONTAIN
NO MERCURY,
NO MINERAL,
NO TURPENTINE,
NO OIL OF WORMSEED,
NO POISON,
NOTHING INJURIOUS,
They are Entirely Vegetable.

Symptoms of Worms.
Itching of the nose, feverishness, twitching or starting suddenly during sleep, pain in the stomach, loss of flesh, paleness with hectic, appetite sometimes voracious, at others feeble, a dullness of the eyes, drowsiness, a swelled upper lip, tongue whitely furred and studded with red spots, fetid or garlic breath, grinding of teeth during sleep, a sensation of lodgment in the throat, an unnatural craving for dirt, chalk or clay, fretfulness and irritability of temper, cholic, fits and palsy.

Intestinal Worms
Are among the first to undermine the constitution in the list of diseases. They often occasion severe disease, ending sometimes fatally, particularly when they ascend to the stomach. Their presence in their most ordinary situation is attended with unfavorable effects upon the general health.

Eminent Men Assert
That all are more or less troubled with worms, and that many die annually from this cause, who, by the timely administration of a proper remedy would be saved. As FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES may be taken without any unpleasant results, and as most children are fond of them, their use is recommended to these apparently healthy, and thus dispel the cause of what would produce suffering.

Be Careful What You Use.
Various remedies have, from time to time, been recommended, such as Calomel, Oil of Wormwood, Turpentine, &c., so that dangerous and even fatal consequences are produced. The necessity of a safe and sure remedy has caused much research and study by the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES. They are positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill worms, but act by making their dwelling place disagreeable to them. In order, however, to guard consumers against deception by a base compound, the analysis of Dr. A. A. HAYES, State Assayer, proving the above statement, is annexed:

"I have analyzed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & CO., and find that they are free from Mercury and other metallic or mineral matter. These Lozenges are compounded, pleasant to the taste, safe, yet sure and effectual in their action.
"Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D.
"Assayer to the State of Mass."

Please Remember
That FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES are prepared with great care from the concentrated extracts of two plants. They do not act as a purgative or emetic, will not debilitate the patient, are so simple an infant may devour a whole box without harm, and will at the same time expel the worms in an extraordinary manner.
FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES is the only Worm Remedy in existence combining harmless qualities with delicious taste and amazing power.
Price, Twenty-five Cents per Box

PROPOSALS.
PENNSYLVANIA
Agricultural Land Scrip
FOR SALE.

The Board of Commissioners now offer for sale 220,000 acres of Agricultural College Land Scrip, being the balance of the Scrip granted to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges in this State. Proposals for the purchase of this Land Scrip, addressed to "The Board of Commissioners of Agricultural Land Scrip," will be received at the Surveyor General Office, at Harrisburg, until 12 o'clock M.,

On Wednesday, April 10, 1867.

This land may be located in any State or Territory by the holders of the scrip upon any of the unappropriated lands (except mineral lands) of the United States, which may be subject to sale at private entry. Each piece of scrip represents a quarter section of one hundred and sixty acres, is issued in blank, and will be transferable, without endorsement or formal assignment. The blank need not be filled until the scrip is presented for location and entry, when the party holding it can fill the blank and enter the land in his own name. Bids must be made as per acre, and no bids will be received for less than one quarter section.

The Scrip will be issued immediately on the payment of the money to the Surveyor General. On all bids for a less quantity than 40,000 acres, one-third of the purchase money must be paid within ten days, and the remaining two-thirds within thirty days after notification of acceptance of the bid or bids by the Board of Commissioners.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1867.

Oyer and Terminer, &c.

Before Hon. James P. Sterrett.

This Court met Monday morning at ten o'clock and proceeded with jury trials. Owing to the absence of one of the jurors impannelled in the case of Alexander Moffitt, indicted for conspiracy, not yet concluded, the time of the Court was occupied in other business until half past eleven, when the tardy juror made his appearance.

AN AFFILIATION CASE.

Charles Konenkamp was tried on an indictment for fornication and bastardy, on oath of Catharine Donaldson. The defendant put in a special plea in bar as to the bastardy. The prosecutrix testified that her first association with defendant was in July, 1863, and that he continued to live and cohabit with her until July 1866, when he left her, and some months afterwards she made the information upon which he was indicted. The paternity of the child, exhibited in evidence, was the important fact to be determined, and the jury entertaining doubt as to the matter, found the defendant guilty of fornication only.

A WHISKY DEALER.

John A. Thomas, for selling liquor without license, to which charge he plead guilty, was fined sixty dollars and the costs.

A PERJURY INFORMATION QUASHED.

Jerome Jones, indicted for perjury, appeared in Court with his bail, R. Frisbee, who surrendered him into custody. It appearing that the information for perjury was made by Mary L. Jones, wife of defendant, the Court discharged him from custody, and ordered that the information be quashed, being null and void.

A HEAVY BILL OF COSTS.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs John Lutz, indicted for compounding a felony, on oath of Matthew Keep, it will be recollected the jury found a verdict of not guilty, requiring that the costs be divided between the defendant and prosecutor. The costs taxed, and for which bills have been filed, amount to the sum of $158,16, and of this amount $50,30 is put down to the credit of Patrick Pender, a witness in the case. To Pender's bill Lutz has excepted, and at his instance E. S. Morrow, Esq., deputy clerk, has been appointed by the Court to re-tax the costs, with a view of determining whether or not they are excessive, as claimed.

DECLINED TO ACT.

John Dunlap, elected constable of Hampton township, presented his declination of the office, for reasons considered satisfactory by the Court, and he was excused from serving.

THE CONSPIRACY CASE

was then resumed, Mr. Swartzwelder offering evidence tending to show probable cause for charging Isaac Thompson with dealing in and passing counterfeit money, for doing which Alexander Moffitt and Wm. Dawson (the defendants) are indicted for conspiracy. The evidence, however, was ruled out, the prosecution objecting to it as not proper. The testimony intended to be offered was as to the character of the prosecutor, Thompson, and to rumors in the community of his having been engaged in the counterfeiting business. A number of witnesses were called, who testified that the defendant's character for honesty was good. The defence closed with the understanding that they would be allowed to call, if they would arrive before the case was concluded, some witnesses who did not answer and for whom attachments were issued. Rebutting evidence was offered by the prosecution, to contradict testimony adduced as to Thompson endeavoring to induce Atkinson Nichol to go into the counterfeiting business, and as to the finding of counterfeit fractional currency in Thompson's still house. A number testified that the character of Nichol for truth and veracity was not good in the vicinity of Hillsboro, Washington county, where he resided, and one of the witnesses testified that the boy, Croft, who swore that he found the counterfeit money in Thompson's still-house, had stated that he (Croft) placed it there. Mr. Thompson was re-called, and testified that whilst engaged in the horse business, in 1863 and 1864, he handled a great deal of money, as much as one hundred thousand dollars each year, and that in all his dealings he never knowingly passed a counterfeit note. At 4:30 the testimony in the case was announced closed, and Mr. Swartzwelder requested that an example be made of the witnesses for whom attachments had been issued, an impression seeming to prevail that witnesses can attend Court or not, just as they pleased.

It being arranged for two speeches on each side, the Court allowed counsel half an hour each. Mr. Miller began the argument on behalf of the prosecution, and was followed by Mr. Hopkins for the defense, after which the Court adjourned. This forenoon Mr. Swartzwelder will address the jury in behalf of the defense, and will be followed by Mr. Marshall for the Commonwealth.

Tyranny Repudiators in Council—"Reconstruction" Not to be Confined to the South.

The first organized meeting of the Tyranny Repudiators was held on Saturday night in the lock-up, Straight and I having appointed it for that time and place for obvious reasons. (Straight is Smith, but he is called Straight because he always drinks without watering it.)

We two went early. We got drunk in the afternoon and rubbed up against a "special." He called two other specials and marched us where we wanted to go. Early as it was, we passed one delegate who was being taken to the place of meeting on a wheelbarrow, and several others getting ready to go. Before ten o'clock the house was crowded. Some of the cells had nine or ten in them, and the space outside the bars was filled with "lodgers" who came without being arrested, but who were all more or less favorably disposed towards the cause. The throng continued to pour in till the number arrested exceeded our most sanguine hopes. The refining presence of woman was not wanting to cheer us, and from different cells female voices could be heard, cursing the watchmen, the Mayor, the Legislators, and everybody else concerned in depriving individuals of their rights. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and it was not till one o'clock that it cooled down sufficiently to allow the business of the meeting to proceed.

At that time Straight told Hans Lager, who was in the cell with us, to call the meeting to order. He did so, but it didn't make much difference. I then suggested that we waive all preliminary formalities and consider ourselves as organized into a society under the name of Tyranny Repudiators, with J. Smith, Esq., as President. Straight at once accepted the position in a neat little speech, thus avoiding the trouble of a vote. Hans Lager then at my suggestion, moved that Shandy McQuirk, Esq., be Secretary of the organization. I immediately entered upon the duties of the office without a single assenting or dissenting voice. The President then proceeded to explain the objects of the association as follows. (I will endeavor to put his remarks in some shape. It's always done.)

Brethren of the T. R. The object of our organization is too well known to need explanation from me. We are banded together to demand and obtain our rights as individuals, and to resist more effectually the blasting despotism which relentlessly pursues us at all times and in all directions, preventing the fulfilment of our most cherished purposes, laying the remorseless lash upon our bleeding backs anew for every one of its hellish laws which our free-born manhood impels us to violate, and using every devilish means to wring from us the hard earned fruits of our peculiar toil. And here let me say that our cause is common with that of our afflicted brethren in the wasted but still sacred soiled South. Our chivalric friends, whose impetuous disregard of laws has placed them in very much the position which we occupy to-night object to occupying that position, so do we; they demand the proud right of regulating for themselves the consequences of their own acts, so do we; they hurl back the base lie that those who do not break the laws have a right to punish those who do, so do we; they claim that the Constitution shall be held sacred to protect those who tore it to pieces, we claim that the laws protecting individuals shall protect instead of punishing us who may have stolen, or killed, or committed riot; they insist that when they were whipped and laid down their arms they at once resumed all the rights they ever had; we insist that if one of us is caught shooting a man, or blowing open a safe, the moment he throws away his tools and promises to do so no more, that moment he resumes his rights as before, and they have no more right to lock him up than they have to hang him for fear he may murder somebody. We demand our continuous rights, and will have them though the streets run blood. Our hightoned Southern friends are powerful in numbers, and have co-operation outside, while we have to work alone, and at a great disadvantage; but though we are weak, we will make ourselves heard, and will continue to hurl defiance into the teeth of the foul usurpation that oppresses us. Our whole system of so called laws is in grossest violation of the spirit of American institutions. How is it with the vaunted principle that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed? Do the inmates of the jail govern the jail? Do they say when they shall go there, how long they shall stay there, or what kind of fare they shall have? Do the free and independent citizens of the Penitentiary, frame the laws governing escape from the institution? Do men who are to be hung, fix the time for their execution? In the smallest matters of every day life we are interfered with. We cannot get drunk when and where we will; we cannot steal as our instincts dictate, but have to steal as we can to avoid detection; we cannot break into any man's house we choose, and when we do venture, must live in constant fear of detection.

Milligan, interrupting from cell 3—"Shure I'd slape swate o' nights if that was the only fear I had."

President resuming—"If, in the course of business, we hit a man too hard, or shoot him, the very laws for the protection of human life which these usurpers say we have violated, they violate in turn, and hang us, we must have a reformation. We of the T. R. must have an equal voice in the regulation of affairs. We must have thieves in the Legislature—

Brown, from cell 1—"O, but you're green or you'd be satisfied now."

President—"We must have rowdies among the police; we must have burglars among the committing magistrates; we must have felons on the judge's bench; we must have cut throats in the jury box, and we must have fugitives from justice as wardens of the jail and Penitentiary. These principles we announce as the only condition on which we will consent to act with the scum of creation who now make the laws."

Milligan—"Shure we demand it in the name of the mighty Amerrikin paple."

President—For these principles our children in the House of Refuge are crying out, and for these principles many of our brave and chivalric fellow-citizens who never knew toil before, are now hardening their hands at menial labor in the Penitentiary."

At this point a watchman brought in a newly arrested delegate, who yelled to such an extent that he awoke all the rest, and the enthusiasm became so great that it became impossible for the speaker to proceed. At the hearing next morning the meeting adjourned.

J. STRAIGHT SMITH, President.
SHANDY M'QUIRK, Secretary.

N. B.—In default of money to pay my fine, I went up in the morning, and on getting out on Monday I got very tired; hence the delay in sending in this report.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, March 25, 1867.

THE WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA ROAD.

As a piece of retaliation on the part of the members of the House, against the friends of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, a bill has passed that body compelling the road to complete its track into Butler. Butler county. It was the original plan of the Western Pennsylvania railroad to traverse that section, but it was thought afterwards that such an extension would not pay. As it is now, the road cuts off at Freeport and following the right bank of the Allegheny river enters Allegheny city, where it connects with the Fort Wayne road and transfers freight and passengers for New Castle and Lawrence. The passage of this bill will take a branch of the road into Butler and from thence to New Castle by a route long since surveyed. If it will not prove a paying route to the Pennsylvania company, it will certainly to some extent injure the Fort Wayne road. The Butler county people are clamoring for the bill and it is quite likely that it will pass.

PARDONS.

Governor Geary is but little annoyed with applications for pardons. Governor Curtin possessed a heart too tender and exercised executive clemency very freely. In many cases he was grossly deceived, but upon the whole, I do not think he ever had any occasion to regret giving way to the finer impulses of his nature. Gov. Geary is the direct opposite of Gov. Curtin in this respect. His soldier life gave him much determination of character and his feelings cannot be worked upon to the advantage of offenders. He will issue no pardon unless all the stringent rules laid down by him are complied with, and it is useless for friends of convicts to endeavor to obtain clemency through him. Those who break the law must suffer the consequences. Evil doers will make a note of this, for Geary will unbolt no prison door which hides a felon from liberty.

THE LAW OF EVIDENCE.

A memorial has been introduced in the Legislature from the Judges of State courts and members of the bar, asking that the old common law rule of evidence in force in Pennsylvania be abolished. The memorial sets forth that the old law-rule of evidence excluding parties and persons interested as witnesses in civil suits was, by the exertions of enlightened men and jurists, abolished in England several years ago, and that this great improvement in jurisprudence, tested by experience, has met the entire approbation of the bench and the bar of that country and of the people.

That similar alterations have taken place in New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Ohio, New Jersey, and in other States, with similar results.

That in all the courts of the United States, in the thirty-seven states of the Union, extending from the St. Johns to the Rio Grande, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans, the same rule obtains.

This produces a singular result in two adjoining squares in Chestnut street, Philadelphia. On Independence Square you are excluded as a witness, but cross Fifth street and you are admitted in the square below. The same anomaly prevails in Pittsburgh—excluded on Grant street, but admitted on Smithfield street.

One step was taken in the right direction by the act of March 27, 1865. It has been liberally construed by the Supreme Court, and has promoted the cause of justice.

Another step has been taken in the right direction by the act which lately passed the House and is now in the Senate, and which we trust will become a law and place us on a footing with our sister states.

The memorial is numerously signed and will have its weight with the law-makers.

FEELS HAPPY.

T. J. Bigham is overjoyed at the passage of the liquor bill. He assumes all glory for its passage, and can see a renomination in its every provision.

THE ALLEGHENY VALLEY RAILROAD BILL.

The repeal of the bill enabling this Company to increase its capital without limitation, will probably take place on Wednesday next. The friends of the Company offer no resistance, providing such a bill as will accomplish the purposes of the road be given in place of the one to be repealed.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The western section of the State did not get more than one half the amount it asked out of the Public Treasury, in the way of appropriations. The Penitentiary, which asked for over two hundred thousand, got only $40,000. This is a mere mite and I cannot imagine why it was not much larger. The Pittsburgh School of Design gets $1,500; St. Paul's Orphan Assylum nothing; the private hospitals nothing; Western Penna. Hospital, $81,000; House of Refuge $47,000; Ninth ward Soldiers Home $1,500.

THE TIOGA ACT.

This act which is so objectionable to the working classes, will not be repealed this session, although the members freely promise that they will use their best exertions to get it repealed.

PRIVATE BILLS.

Over one thousand private bills are said to be awaiting their turn for legislation.

CONSOLIDATION.

The Consolidation bill will be brought up on Thursday. There is no opposition to it, either from Allegheny City or the boroughs interested. I can see nothing to prevent its passage, although the members expect every day to hear of some opposition from the anti-consolidation party. The bill authorizing the erection of a new bridge over the Allegheny river will probably be taken up and passed before the close of the week. CUDJO.

New Books.

MEXICO UNDER MAXIMILIAN. By Henry M. Flint, Esq. National Publishing Company.

The design of this volume is to show that the French intervention in Mexico was not prompted by hostility to the United States, nor yet mainly to enforce indemnity for alleged spoliations, but for the charitable purpose of affording the people of that country a stable government, with security for life, liberty, and property. This, it is maintained, Maximilian was in a fair way to do, when the close of the rebellion in this country left the government at Washington free to instigate and encourage the leaders of the old factions, and to intimidate the French Emperor. Considerable information, of an authentic character, is embodied. Many of the positions taken are palpable enough, but the book is written with a leaning against which readers will do well to be on their guard.

BACK BONE; photographed from the "Scalpel." By Edward H. Dixon, M. D. New York: De Witt & Bro. Pittsburgh; for sale by H. Miner.

Dr. Dixon is himself "Back-Bone," and not much else. He delights in contradicting all established opinions, not only in medicine, but in all other departments of investigation. This he does, not deferentially, but with an air that seems to say he takes pleasure in antagonism and for its own sake. Sometimes flippant, always pungent, who ever can endure his intense egotism, will find his pages spicy reading.

Amusements.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—The sweet and charming actress and vocalist, Emilie Melville, made her appearance last night to a large and brilliant audience. She appeared in her great character of Fanchon, and the frequent bursts of applause she drew from the audience was evidence sufficient of her powers to fascinate. To-night she appears for the first time this season in the Pride of the Market.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—Since Mr. Meyers, the indefatigable manager of this popular place of amusement, assumed control, the Varieties Theatre has been an unobjectionable headquarters for amusement. Last night over two hundred persons were turned away from the doors unable to obtain admittance. The great attraction is Miss Flora Temple in her great character as Mazeppa. Her horse Fire Fly is wonderfully well trained. She is a clever actress. A great bill is offered to-night.

—Week before last the Secretary of the Treasury created quite a stir among the banks holding Government deposits by ordering very large sums to be paid into the various Sub-treasuries. The movement is a wholesome one, as the Government is the proper custodian of its own money, and it is said will mainly hereafter hold its possession. By withholding it from the banks the fluctuations in the money market will be materially lessened; for, having the money, self-interest prompts them to use it, which makes the market easy, and when the Government wants it calls it in, the banks are forced to collect suddenly, thus producing stringency, and often great distress. Last week there was almost as much excitement among the banks holding balances due the State Treasury.

—Various questions of great interest to shareholders in national banks are at this present time under discussion, and we have received many inquiries for information upon certain points. And first, as to the liabilities of stockholders in national banking institutions, we reply that section 12th of the bank act declares that shareholders are liable to the extent of the amount of their stock, at par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. A national bank may reduce its capital by a vote of shareholders owning two thirds of its capital stock. A reduction cannot, of course, be made to a point below fifty thousand dollars in capital of banks in places containing not over six thousand inhabitants, nor to less than two hundred thousand in capital of banks located in cities whose population exceeds fifty thousand, and no change whatever can be made without the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency.

National bank charters run twenty years, but they cannot be given up at any time by a vote of the shareholders. National banks may receive from the Comptroller circulating notes to the amount of ninety per cent of the bonds deposited with the Comptroller and not exceeding capital paid in.—Boston Bulletin.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 25, 1867.

The produce markets although less active to-day continue firm, and prices are well supported. The operations were unusually light to-day, the volume of business in the aggregate being comparatively light, but this may be accounted for in part by the fact that Monday is usually a dull day.

GRAIN—Wheat is in demand, and in limited supply; choice Spring may be quoted at $2.85 to $2,90. Sale of 83 bags Ear Corn at 73—prime Shelled is quoted at 78 to 80. Oats firm, and in light supply—held at 55, on track, and 55 to 57, in store. Sale of 500 bush Rye, to arrive, at $1,37½, and 110 bush Spring Barley at $1,10.

FLOUR—Is firm with a fair local demand, and prices are well sustained. We continue to quote at $12.55 to $13 for prime to choice Spring Wheat: $13,50 to $14,50 for Winter Wheat; and $16 to $17 for fancy brands. Sale of 75 bbls Rye Flour at $7,40—small sales at $7,75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm with a steady jobbing demand at 10 to 10½ for Shoulders; 12 for Ribbed Sides; and 16 to 16½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard is quoted at 13. Sales of Mess Pork at $23 to $23½.

SEEDS—Cloverseed is steady at $8,50, while Timothy is dull but unchanged at $3 to $3,25. There is a fair demand for Flaxseed at $2,85, and but little offering.

BUTTER—Prime Roll Butter is in light supply and good demand, while common is in good supply and dull. We quote the former at 33 to 36, and choice at 37 to 38.

EGGS—The market is steady with a demand about equal to the supply, and prices are unchanged at 20 to 21.

HAY—Prime baled Hay is in demand, and the supply at present is light—may be quoted at $24 to $25—sales of 1 car common at $22.

GREEN APPLES—There is an improved demand for prime to choice, and prices are a shade higher; we now quote at $3,50 to $4 for prime, and $4,50 to $5 for choice.

POTATOES—In fair demand but unchanged. We continue to quote at $2,50 to $2,75 per bbl, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Is dull but unchanged. Small sales in store at 9 to 10 for Apples, and 16 to 20 for Peaches.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, March 25, 1867.

CRUDE—There was but a single operation reported to-day, two thousand barrels for future delivery, on private terms. The market is firm, notwithstanding there is but little doing, and holders are disposed to ask a still further advance, though there is but little prospect at present of success, as the advices both from the east and Europe are less encouraging. For spot oil, buyers are offering 6¼, possibly 6⅜ could be obtained, but sellers generally are asking the even seven cents. The stock in this market at present in the hands of regular dealers is much smaller that generally supposed, though the demand is not pressing, as most of our refiners have already bought pretty freely, and many of them have all their tanks full to overflowing.

REFINED—There was not a solitary operation in bonded oil to-day—at least we had none reported. Spot oil is in demand, and standard white may be quoted at 22, on cars here, and 28, delivered in Philadelphia—offers to buy for April at 27½. For the late months there is little or no inquiry, and the demand for spot oil is in consequence of "short buyers," being forced into the market, a great many contracts maturing on the first of April. For free oil the demand continues light, and prices are unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro	527	J. G. Miller	55
Waring & King	55

About 200 head were prime to extra Ohio, Illinois and State beeves, and the balance were mostly ordinary to medium cattle. For best cattle there is some competition. Sheep butchers paid 17½c for a few of the choicest. For all grades below strictly prime the demand is very light and sales extremely slow at losing prices. The bulk of cattle sold at 14 to 16c—from 15 to 15½c was as much as wholesale butchers would pay for fat steers of fair quality and the majority of sheep butchers got what they wanted at 16@16½c. The proprietors of stockyards propose to make Wednesday the principal market day, and discontinue the market on Monday. Tuesday's quotations were: Extras, 17@17½c; prime, 16@17c; good, 15@16c; medium, 14½@15; poor to medium, 13@14½c; bulk, 14@16c; average, 15c; worst, 12@13. RIVER NEWS.

The river is again receding slowly at this point with about nine and a half feet in the channel last evening. At Oil City the Allegheny was rising with twenty-five inches at that point, and, as considerable rain fell on Saturday night, we should not be surprised if both the Allegheny and Monongahela should come out pretty sharply. The weather yesterday was cloudy and raw with indications of snow.

Thus far the following towboats have got out, and others it is thought will leave today and to-morrow, provided the water holds out: Coal Valley, with nine barges; Coal Hill, nine barges; Resolute, nine barges; Ormsby, six barges—all for Cincinnati. Mary Ann, five boats; Arrow, three boats and two barges; Hercules, eight barges and one boat; Diamond, eight barges—all for Louisville. The Coal Valley, belonging to Wm. Stone, sunk one of her barges at the "Trap"—no other disasters thus far reported.

The Spray, from Louisville, is the only arrival we have to record. She had an excellent freight list, having among other items, a considerable quantity of metal. The Columbia, from Nashville, was due here last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning. The Argosy, from Cincinnati, will arrive here to-day.

There were no departures yesterday from the regular packets—the Ingomar cleared for Matamoras about noon.

The Glasgow, Capt. G. W. Johnston, will leave for St. Louis and the Missouri river on Thursday morning without fail, and the Bellevernon, Capt. Darragh, is next in turn for the same point. The R. C. Gray, Capt. Anderson, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Maggie Hays, Capt. Hendrickson, will leave for Cincinnati on Wednesday at noon. The Kenton, Capt. Dunlap, will be the first boat out for New Orleans.

The Leclaire, in command of Capt. J. G. Saint, is announced for the Idaho Gold Regions, and the headwaters of the Missouri.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC AT LOUISVILLE.—Everybody has been anxiously awaiting to hear the expression of opinion on the Great Republic by the journals of Louisville, and below will be found extracts from the three most prominent papers of that place. It will be remembered that that city has the impertinence to enter into the contest with Pittsburgh for superiority in boat building, and, as a matter of course, is was not to be expected that these papers could muster honesty enough to give the Republic a fair and impartial hearing. The Courier, however, is forced to acknowledge that in point of capacity, she is considerably ahead of anything on the Western Rivers. Below will be found extracts from the Courier, Journal and Democrat:

Says the Courier: The Great Republic, built for the New Orleans trade by the mechanics and boatmen in Pittsburgh and Shousetown, was at the city wharf yesterday morning on her way to New Orleans. The new boat has the largest hull ever yet constructed on our Western rivers. It, however, lacks symmetry and litheness, and is too wide and heavy for real usefulness on our waters, as she will only be able to run in deep waters, as the draught light is conceded to be 4½ feet, and of course, in running time with fuel, &c., she will necessarily draw five feet water. The cabin of the boat is by far the most attractive feature, and in the design and finish the skill and experience of a former Louisville builder, Chas. Gearing, was called into requisition. When once on board and under the arching canopy of the cabin, all the real beauties of the boat stand revealed. The style is an improvement on the first Mayflower, and next the Ruth, though very similar in design, calling forth the skill of the builder in elaborating the finish and general appearance. As usual in all upper country boats, a vast deal of labor and expense has been incurred in outside show, and extraneous efforts to catch the eye with gewgaws and tinsel, paint and gilding. The state rooms, the real objects of interest to the traveler, are far inferior to the expectations that should be realized on seeing the gorgeousness of the exterior. The rooms are small and cramped, and would suffer in comparison even with our Ruth. In comparison with the Eclipse, she falls so low as to barely bear brief mention. She is a huge boat with dimensions fully warranting the assertion that she can carry more freight on her own bottom than any craft yet built in the west. This new craft has also been compared with the low-pressure Richmond. The Richmond has been represented by interested parties as an insignificant affair along side the Great Republic. Now, what must the public think of the truthfulness of such statements when they know the fact that the Richmond is from ten to fifteen feet the largest boat, as trim as a race horse, while her immense paddle-boxes tower fifty-five feet above the water. Although the largest boat now on our western rivers, with fully one-fourth more steam power than any other craft, the Richmond bears the outward appearance of a moderate sized clipper steamer. In comparison she is like the high mettled, trim racer, and the other the heavy Conestoga draught horse of Pennsylvania. The Richmond is the full-blooded race horse—the Lexington or the Kentucky of the field, and the second Eclipse on the waters.

Says the Journal: The Great Republic handles very well in fact, much better than from her clumsy appearance, any one would suppose. She moves very easily, no jar or tremor being perceptible. From the fact that only half of her chimneys were raised to allow her to pass under the bridge at Cincinnati, her appearance at the best, clumsy and unsymmetrical, was anything but prepossessing. She seems too long in front of the wheel-houses, and too short behind them. Her texas is not well proportioned to her cabin, and her pilot-house is an absurd cross between an ornamented grape arbor and a fancy hen house. The general impression of the boat as a whole, from the bank, is almost universally an unfavorable one. But as we ascend the stairs and enter the cabin door we are enchanted with the lightness an airy grace of her cabin. It is an imitation, to some extent, of the Hudson river packets, the finest in the known world. The effect of a view through the spacious cabin is very fine, and a peep through the half-opened door of some state room shows that no pains or expense have been spared to render her rooms really luxurious in their appliances for a traveler's comfort.

Says the Democrat: The Great Republic, a new boat, recently built in Pittsburgh, arrived here yesterday and landed at the wharf. She only laid there a little while—long enough to take Captain Pink Varble aboard. However, she was visited by a large number of people, all of whom expressed themselves well pleased with the inside appearance of the boat; but we did not hear any one say they liked the outside appearance. She went over the falls drawing eight and a half feet water, and landed at Portland, where she was having the remainder of her chimneys put up last evening. She leaves for New Orleans this evening. We will take a better look at her today. She is a fine boat, and we are of the opinion that $375,000 ought to have made anything fine, though her general outside appearance will not favorably impress "a stranger" that she is anything extra.

LARGE SALE OF

KANSAS LANDS,

ON TUESDAY, THE 2d DAY OF APRIL, 1867, will be offered

AT PUBLIC SALE.

At the Eldridge House,

IN THE CITY OF

Lawrence, Kansas,

ABOUT 155,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Situate in the Counties of LEAVENWORTH, WYANDOTTE, JEFFERSON and DOUGLASS, and known as the

"Delaware Reserve."

These lands are directly on the main line of the UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY, EASTERN DIVISION.

The Branch of the same ROAD FROM LEAVENWORTH TO LAWRENCE PASSES THROUGH THEM, and the railroad from St. Louis to Leavenworth runs along their eastern border.

IN FERTILITY, LOCATION AND ABUNDANCE OF TIMBER AND WATER, these lands are the FINEST IN THE STATE.

By the treaty with the Delawares in 1860 the Indian title to the "Reserve" was extinguished, and since that date many farms have been improved, and churches, school houses, grist and saw mills erected, and many other improvements made thereon.

The climate of Kansas is remarkably healthy, and to farmers and settlers these lands offer

Greater Inducements than any Others in the West.

Also, at the same place, immediately after the disposition of the above lands, will be sold about

28,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Situate in the Southeastern part of the "SAC AND FOX RESERVE," in the county of Franklin, Kansas.

Also, a large number of TOWN LOTS AND BLOCKS in the towns of NORTH LAWRENCE, TONGANOXIE and PERRY.

The sale will commence on April 2d, 1867, and will continue from day to day until all the lands above named have been disposed of. The lands will be offered in tracts to suit purchasers.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash and balance in two equal annual payments, with 6 per cent. interest thereon from date of purchase.

E. M. BARTHOLOW, Agent.
